No. DSSSB-LC0L3/194/2026/E-409296/ 2164-66 Dated 30/10/26

ORDER

1. Whereas, the Delhi Subordinate Services Selection Board (DSSSB), vide Vacancy Notice/Advertisement No. 08/2023 dated 22.12.2023, as amended by corrigendum dated 15.04.2025, advertised vacancies for recruitment to the post of Assistant Teacher (Nursery) in the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD), Directorate of Education (DOE) and New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) under Post Code 817/23.

2. Whereas, the One Tier Computer Based Test (CBT) for the aforesaid post was conducted from 10.08.2025 to 14.08.2025. Subsequently, the Board, vide Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026, published the normalized marks of the candidates who appeared in the examination and provisionally shortlisted eligible candidates for uploading their e-dossiers through the OARS portal during the period from 07.05.2026 to 21.05.2026, subject to fulfilment of the prescribed eligibility conditions and verification of the particulars furnished in their online application forms.

3. Whereas, Point No. 11 of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 expressly stipulates as under:

"If any candidate fails to upload the e-dossier during the above said period, his candidature will be rejected and no further opportunity will be given on whatsoever ground."

4. Whereas, Ms. Sakshi Devi, applicant in OA No. 3639/2026, applied for the post under Post Code 817/23 in the Scheduled Caste (SC) category and appeared in the examination under Roll No. 238171201013016. She secured 107.73 normalized marks out of 200. As per Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026, the normalized cut-off marks for female candidates in the SC category for uploading the e-dossier were 97.43 out of 200. Accordingly, the applicant was provisionally shortlisted for uploading her e-dossier through the OARS portal during the prescribed period from 07.05.2026 to 21.05.2026.

5. Whereas, the applicant failed to upload her e-dossier within the stipulated period. Consequently, her candidature was rejected vide Rejection Notice No. 1658 dated 17.09.2026.

6. Whereas, aggrieved by the aforesaid circumstances, the applicant approached the Hon'ble Tribunal by filing OA No. 3639/2026, titled Sakshi Devi Vs. GNCTD & Ors. The Hon'ble Tribunal, vide order dated 23.09.2026, without entering into the merits of the case, directed the competent authority amongst the respondents, namely DSSSB, to consider and decide the applicant's pending representation dated 03.08.2026 and pass a reasoned and speaking order within three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of the order.

7. Whereas, in compliance with the order dated 23.09.2026 passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal in OA No. 3639/2026, the representation dated 03.08.2026 submitted by Ms. Sakshi Devi (Roll No. 238171201013016) has been examined in light of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 and the applicable recruitment conditions.

8. Whereas, in her representation dated 03.08.2026, the applicant stated that, owing to certain family issues and other circumstances, she could not upload her e-dossier within the prescribed period and requested that a one-time opportunity be granted to upload/submit the same.

9. Whereas, the representation submitted by the applicant has been considered in light of the facts and circumstances of the case, the applicable provisions of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 and the directions issued by the Hon'ble Tribunal.

10. Whereas, the Board had prescribed a specific period, from 07.05.2026 to 21.05.2026, for uploading the e-dossier. This requirement was applicable to all provisionally shortlisted candidates. The notice expressly stipulated the consequences of failure to upload the e-dossier within the prescribed period.

11. Whereas, the Point No. 11 of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 categorically provides that failure to upload the e-dossier within the stipulated period shall result in rejection of the candidature and that no further opportunity shall be granted on whatsoever ground. This condition was notified in advance and formed part of the terms and conditions governing the recruitment process. All candidates were, therefore, required to comply with the prescribed timeline.

12. Whereas, the prescribed period for uploading the e-dossier expired on 21.05.2026, and the applicant submitted her representation seeking a one-time opportunity on 03.08.2026, after expiry of the stipulated period. The applicant's submission that she was provisionally shortlisted and secured 107.73 normalized marks in the CBT examination has been duly taken into consideration. However, provisional shortlisting on the basis of examination marks does not, by itself, confer an indefeasible right to selection or exempt a candidate from complying with the notified recruitment conditions.

13. Whereas, the Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 also provided a specific procedure for cases involving technical glitches in the OARS module. Under this provision, the candidate was required to report the technical glitch to the DSSSB Helpdesk within 48 hours after expiry of the e-dossier submission period, along with supporting evidence. An additional period of three days could be granted only after the reported technical glitch had been substantiated and verified by the Board. This limited provision does not constitute a general extension of the e-dossier submission deadline.

14. Whereas, the applicant has attributed her failure to upload the e-dossier to family issues and other circumstances. However, the grounds stated in her representation do not, by themselves, establish that she was prevented from uploading the e-dossier due to a technical glitch in the OARS module or that she fulfilled the conditions prescribed for the limited extension provided in the notice.

15. And whereas, upon consideration of the representation and the applicable provisions of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026, no sufficient ground has been established on the basis of the material considered to grant the applicant a further opportunity to upload her e-dossier beyond the prescribed period. In the absence of an established ground warranting relief under the applicable provisions, the request cannot be acceded to contrary to the express stipulation contained in Point No. 11 of the aforesaid notice.

16. Now therefore, in view of the facts and circumstances discussed above, the provisions of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 and particularly the stipulation contained in Point No. 11 thereof, the representation dated 03.08.2026 submitted by Ms. Sakshi Devi (Roll No. 238171201013016), seeking a one-time opportunity to upload her e-dossier for the post of Assistant Teacher (Nursery), Post Code 817/23, is hereby rejected. Consequently, the applicant's candidature shall be governed by the terms and conditions of Notice No. 1623 dated 05.05.2026 and Rejection Notice No. 1658 dated 17.09.2026. Further, the marks of the applicant are less than the final cut off marks of SC category as per final Result Notice No. 1659 dated 17.09.2026 issued for the Post Code 817/23.

17. This order is issued in compliance with the directions of the Hon'ble Tribunal vide Order dated 23.09.2026 in OA No. 3639/2026, Sakshi Devi Vs. GNCTD & Ors. and with the prior approval of the Competent Authority.
