- i) The candidate must apply in the prescribed OMR application form available at DSSSB and DC (Revenue) offices at North-East, North, North West, West, South & South West
- ii) No document should be attached with the OMR application. The OMR application form should not be folded or stapled. In case, the OMR form is folded/stapled or any document is attached, the application shall be rejected
- iii) The application form should be filled up using Blue/Black ball pen only.
- iv) The candidate must write his/her Name, Father's/Husband's name and Date of Birth as it appears in the Matriculation/Secondary Certificate or equivalent. If the candidate has changed his/her name after matriculation, his/her father's name, her husband's name, necessary documentary proof/affidavit issued by a First Class Magistrate should be furnished at the time of verification of documents.
- v) Recent passport size coloured photographs (front face) with light background as per specification should be pasted on application form.
- vi) All columns must be filled. No column should be left blank, instead it should be marked "NA" wherever not applicable. Incomplete or illegible or incorrectly filled or unsigned application form will be summarily rejected. Candidate must sign in the running script, not in block letters in the same language.
- vii) Candidate must sign in running script and put his/her left thumb ink impression in relevant columns of application form which must be clearly visible.

4. Further, in para 9 of the advertisement it was clearly mentioned that the application form with any of the following deficiencies or irregularities will be treated as invalid and summarily rejected:

- a. Application form not in prescribed OMR Format or Application form in Newspaper cutting or submitted before opening date or after closing date.
- b. Post name and Post Code(s) not filled up or incorrectly filled up.
- c. OMR application form not filled up or not filled up as per direction given in the Notice.
- d. Incomplete or illegible or incorrectly filled up applications.
- e. Without passport size coloured photograph (front face) with light background affixed on application form in the space provided. Affixing Black and White/polaroid and blurred photographs. Affixing more than one type of photograph.

- i. The Left thumb ink impression not clearly visible.
- j. Applications not filled in by candidate in his/her own handwriting.
- k. Under/over aged candidates.
- l. Not having the requisite qualifications as on closing date.
- m. More than one application for the post by the same candidate for the same post.
- n. Applications of more than one candidate or more than one post code sent in one envelope.
- o. Application from a candidate debarred from appearing in the Exam by the DSSSB/SSC for life time or for a particular period.
- p. Any other irregularity

5. It was also clearly mentioned in the note below para 9 of the advertisement that "No claim for re-consideration of the rejected cases on the grounds specified above will be entertained."

6. Further, in para 11 of the said advertisement it was stipulated that the candidature of the candidates will be cancelled in the following conditions:

"(i) The candidates applying for the posts should ensure that they fulfill all the eligibility conditions. Merely because a candidate has been allowed to appear in the examination will not be considered as a valid ground for his/her being eligible for the selection. If on verification at any time before or after the written examination or at any stage of recruitment process, it is found that they do not fulfill any of the eligibility conditions, his/her candidature for the post applied for, will be cancelled by the Board/Appointing Authority.

(ii) Candidates are cautioned that they should not furnish any incomplete or false information or indulge in impersonation or submit any document which is defective or fabricated or otherwise commit any act of misconduct in submitting the application forms or during the course of recruitment or fraudulently claim SC/ST/OBC etc. and other benefits. In the event if any such case is detected, the Board/Appointing Authority reserves its right to withdraw/cancel any selection and take legal action against the candidate concerned. The candidate may be permanently or for a specified period debarred from taking part in the recruitments conducted by the Board."

7. In para 14 of the said advertisement it was also laid down that," The decision of the Delhi Subordinate Services Selection Board in all matters relating to eligibility, acceptance or rejection of the application, penalty for false information /misconduct, mode of selection, conduct of examination(s) and allotment of Exam centers, selection and allotment of post/organizations to the selected candidates will be final and binding on the candidates and no enquiry/correspondence will be entertained in this regard."

8. Accordingly, all the application forms received against the posts of TGTs were scrutinized and out of total 31691 application forms 13111 were found valid and lists of eligible and ineligible candidates were uploaded on the website of the Board vide notice dated 10/09/2013 wherein applicants were instructed to submit their representations with documentary evidence up to 20/09/2013 incase they have any objection about their eligibility/ineligibility.

9. After scrutinizing all the representations the Board considered some candidates as eligible and accordingly 13873 candidates were considered eligible for the posts of TGTs (post codes 04/13-19/13).

10. Some of the aggrieved candidates who were declared ineligible by the Board filed petition in the Hon'ble CAT and as per direction of the CAT provisional admit cards were issued to them and they were provisionally allowed to take the examination.

11. Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena had also applied for the post code 07/13 and as per the RRs she was required to fulfill following qualifications:

(i)- B.A.(Honours) in one of the Modern Indian Languages (MIL) concerned or BA with MIL concerned as one of the Elective subjects from a recognized University having 45 % marks in aggregate with one additional language or one school subject at Degree level.

OR

Equivalent Oriental Degree in MIL concerned from a recognized University having 45% marks in aggregate.

OR

(For appointment as Hindi Teachers only) Sahitya Rattan of Hindi Sahitya Sammelan Prayag having secured at least 45% marks in aggregate with English in Matriculation provided further that the requirement as to the minimum of 45% marks in the aggregate shall be relaxable in the case of (a) candidate who possess a Post Graduate Qualification in MIL concerned from a recognized University (b) candidates belonging to SC/ST (c) Physically handicapped candidates.

(ii) Degree/Diploma in teaching OR Senior Anglo Vernacular Certificate. (iii) " Knowledge of Hindi is essential". (iv) Central Teacher Eligibility Test conducted by CBSE.

N.B. :- "The candidate should have studied the subject concerned as mentioned in the RRs in all parts/years of graduation. The elective word may also include main subject as practiced in different Universities".

12. During the course of scrutiny of her application it was noticed that she had not darkened the circle/bubble in her OMR application form relating to "Degree/Diploma in teaching, SAV Certificate" As such her application was rejected for not having the requisite qualification as per RRs/advertisement with the following reasons: "NOT HAVING THE REQUISITE QUALIFICATION AS ON CLOSING DATE".

13. The Board conducted combined examination on 28/12/2014 for the posts of TGTs (04/13-19/13) advertised in the year 2013 alongwith the other post codes of TGTs advertised in the year 2012.

14. The matter was examined in the context of the order of Hon'ble Tribunal dated 20.03.2015, O.A. No. 4703/2014, MA No. 4080/2014 whereupon it has been observed that :-

- (i) As per the qualifications mentioned in the OMR application form, Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena was not fulfilling the qualifications as prescribed in the RRs.
- (ii) The instructions laid down in the para 8.VI. of the advertisement clearly state, "All columns must be filled. No column should be left blank, instead it should be marked "NA" wherever not applicable. Incomplete or illegible or incorrectly filled or unsigned application form will be summarily rejected. Candidate must sign in the running script, not in block letters in the same language." Since, Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena did not follow the said instruction and the qualification column of her OMR application form was incomplete, her application was rightly rejected.
- (iii) Further, the instructions laid down in the para 9 of the advertisement provide that;
 - c. OMR application form not filled up or not filled up as per direction given in the Notice.
 - d. Incomplete or illegible or incorrectly filled up applications.Since, Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena did not follow the aforesaid instructions and the qualification column of her OMR application form was incomplete, her application was therefore rightly rejected.
- (iv) Candidates were also cautioned in the para 11. (ii) of advertisement that they should not furnish any incomplete or false information or indulge in impersonation or submit any document which is defective or fabricated or otherwise commit any act of misconduct in submitting the application forms or during the course of recruitment or fraudulently claim SC/ST/OBC etc. and other benefits. In the event if any such case is detected, the Board/Appointing Authority reserves its right to withdraw/cancel any selection and take legal action against the candidate concerned. The candidate may be permanently or for a specified period debarred from taking part in the recruitments conducted by the Board. Since the application form of Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena was incomplete in respect of qualifications, her candidature was rightly rejected.

- (v) In this connection it is pertinent to refer Hon'ble Tribunal order dated 12/08/2016 in a similar O.A. no. 4572/2014 titled as Devender Yadav & Ors Vs. DSSSB & Ors wherein it was, inter alia, held that the applicants in the case cannot claim to be provided with a more favourable consideration than others have been provided by the respondents. The operative part of the order is as under:-

"21.....In spite of the categorical findings recorded by the Division Bench of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court in the case of Aruna Meena Vs. Union of India and Anr.(supra), even that case had not been pointed out before, and noticed by the Coordinate Bench, while delivering its judgment on 18.12.2015 in Neha Nagar Vs. DSSSB & Ors.(supra).

22. We in respectful agreement with the Division Bench judgment of Hon'ble Delhi High Court in Aruna Meena Vs. Union of India and Anr. (supra), and we are bound by it, as well as the Single Bench judgment of the Hon'ble Rajasthan High Court in Manoj Kumar (supra), and are therefore, as a result, unable to follow the Coordinate Bench judgment in Neha Nagar Vs. DSSSB & Ors (supra) and other related cases. The applicants ought to have been vigilant while filling up their application forms, and when they had failed to do so, no indulgence can be granted to them on any sympathetic considerations. The Hon'ble Apex Court has also in the case of State of Tamil Nadu & Ors Vs. St. Joseph Teachers Training Institute & Anr., (1991) 3 SCC 87: JT 1991 (2) SC 343, held that mere humanitarian grounds cannot form the basis for granting reliefs against the settled propositions of law, or contrary to law, and when an instruction or yardstick prescribed in the concerned advertisement has been applied uniformly in the case of all other candidates, the three applicants before us cannot claim to be provided with a more favourable consideration than others have been provided by the respondents.

15. Keeping in view all the aforesaid facts and circumstances and order dated 12/08/2016 in a similar O.A. no. 4572/2014 titled as Devender Yadav & Ors Vs. DSSSB & Ors of Hon'ble Tribunal, it has been decided that although the candidate viz. Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena fulfils the qualifications of the posts as prescribed in the RRs, yet she can't be considered as a valid candidate for the Post Codes for which she is claiming the benefits for the reasons recorded in the preceding paragraphs. The case of Ms. Muneshi Bai Meena accordingly disposed off.

16. This issues with the approval of Competent Authority and in compliance of the directions of Hon'ble CAT.

17. Let this order be served upon the above-mentioned applicant through Speed Post.
