For admissibility of benefit of reservation the result has been processed as per the judgment dated 04.08.2009 of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as passed in Civil Appeal No. 5092 of 2009 arising out of Petition (s) for Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No(s). 24327/05 Subhash Chandra & Anr. V/s DSSSB & ors..

Reserved category candidates who were short listed in UR category with reference to result of Part I (Objective) exam. and also obtained marks in Part II (Descriptive) exam., above or equal marks of last qualified UR candidate and have not availed any benefit of reservation, have been declared qualified for shorthand/typewriting skill test against UR vacancies.

Since original documents have not been called from the candidates, as such detail scrutiny has not been carried out, as such mere inclusion of name in the list qualifying the candidates for appearing in the Shorthand/ Typewriting skill test does not entitle the candidate the right over the post.

Final selection against advertised vacancies shall be made in accordance with the merit list drawn as per result of Part II (Descriptive) exam., subject to the candidates qualifying the Shorthand/Typewriting skill test and fulfilling all conditions of eligibility as prescribed by the RRs and term and condition of advertisement. Nomination to the post code shall be made as per the option already exercised/obtained on the day of written examination.

Candidates whose roll number are indicted in the result notice are being called for Shorthand/Typewriting Skill Test separately.
