Tourism has emerged as the world's largest industry. Growing rapidly in the last two decades, today it accounts for 6% of world output and employs some 100 million people around the globe. Tourism – the travel-based recreation – provides people with a change of place and a break from the monotony of daily life. It brings people of different nations together, allowing them to come into close contact with each other's customs and other aspects of life. It reveals the scenic beauty and past heritage of a country, of people belonging to other nations. The knowledge and experience gained in the process can lead to greater understanding and tolerance, and can ever foster world peace. The contribution to tourism can be nowhere felt more clearly than on the economic front. A study conducted by the United Nations has shown that developing countries, in particular, can reap handsome benefits out of tourism which greatly boosts national income. Tourism generates employment, and adds to the entrepreneurial wealth of nation. While tourism's advantages are many, its undesirable side effects have raised fresh problems. Tourism can cause social, cultural or environmental disruption. Of the greatest concern is the damage to the environment. In order to attract more tourists, sprawling resorts are built which take neither the local architectural styles nor the ecology into consideration. Natural systems come to be destroyed as a result of indiscriminate construction to provide water and waste disposal facilities and recreational arrangement to tourists. Overuse of environmental wealth disturbs the ecological balance. Damage is most in wildlife parks which remain the foremost sites of tourist attraction. Tourist vans and the visitor's feet destroy the ground vegetation, thus affecting the feeding habits of the animals and the landscape as well. Overcrowding brings about congestion, leading to environmental and health hazards. The Taj Mahal, one of the seven wonders of the world, has suffered a lot of wear and tear from the trampling feet of tourists. Some socio-culture effects of tourism have been damaging. Tourism often ushers in new lifestyles, arrangements as desired by tourists are provided in order to make them feel at home. The emergence of this 'other' culture in various places has caused dissatisfaction among the local people. The concern is that the local people tend to imitate the foreign values, breaking away from their own traditions. To promote safe tourism while ensuring that it remains a profitable industry, it is imperative to understand the factor that hamper the growth of tourism and check them effectively.

यह हर्ष का विषय है कि आधुनिक नारी की स्थिति में परिवर्तन आ रहा है। यह शिक्षित हो रही है। आर्थिक तौर पर मजबूत हो रही है। घर से बाहर निकल रही है। पुरुष के साथ कंधे से कंधा मिलाकर चल रही है। वह अपने अस्तित्व और गौरव को पहचान रही है। अपनी खोई हुई प्रतिष्ठा को वापस ला रही है। स्वतंत्रता प्राप्ति के पश्चात से आज तक नारी विभिन्न क्षेत्रों में दिन पर दिन अपनी प्रतिभा का परिचय दे रही है किंतु इतने होने पर भी वह पुरुष के समान नहीं बन पाई है। यह कार्य कोई एक दिन में तो होगा नहीं इसमें समय लगेगा। आशा की जा सकती है कि वह दिन भी जरूर आएगा जब वह पुरुष के बराबर अपना स्थान बना लेगी।
